Modern Art Opening

DA VINCI GALLERY A wave of colour enveloped visitors to the opening of Iva Pavelchuk's latest exhibition 5 December. The series of paintings depicting everyday and homely objects such as mugs and jugs are executed in a modern style, but it was the sheer array of hues which left the deepest impression on visitors, with those who know Pavelchenko's works commenting that it was one of her best showcases in recent time. A graduate of the Ukrainian Academy of Art Pavelchenko has a strong following both at home and abroad, and you can find out by visiting the exhibition, which runs till 5 January.
